Demystifying Testifying; Courtroom 101

This 1-day class hosted by the Ocoee, Florida Police Department is scheduled for November 12th, 2024, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Class will meet at 125 N. Lakeshore Drive, Ocoee, FL 34761

The cost of this 1 day class is just $159.00 but seating is limited to 25, so hurry.

Law Enforcement Officers, Crime Scene Technicians, Laboratory Personnel, Code Enforcement Officers, Property and Evidence Technicians, and even college students preparing for a career in criminal justice will benefit from this class.

Does the thought of walking into a courtroom cause you undo anxiety? Do you worry about how you will answer questions? If you have never been in court or have minimal experience testifying, then this class is for you. This class will guide you through the process of how a case gets to the courtroom. You will learn who is involved in the process and what each of their roles is. Attendees will learn courtroom etiquette as well as proper behavior and responses. The multiple exercises throughout the day culminate with each student "testifying" in front of the class. And while that is usually an uncomfortable position to be in, the lessons from throughout the day will make that portion very easy as students will have developed a new found confidence.

The instructor is a 36 year law enforcement veteran with 25 of those years as a detective. He has testified in over 125 homicide trials, several times as an expert witness, as well as countless other cases. He testified in Florida's first Hate Crime offense on Court TV and also in the mass casualty shooting in Parkland, FL in 2018. He has testified in State and Federal court and has over 1000 depositions. He has been called to criminal and civil cases. His testifying style makes the time you are on the stand much easier and will make you more confident and comfortable
