IMPARTIALITY UNDER PRESSURE:

BIAS, ETHICS & OBJECTIVITY IN FORENSIC SCIENCE

February 6, 2026 | 1100-1200 EST

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In the high-stakes world of forensic evidence, the work is more than technical, it can be life-altering. This webinar examines the critical role of impartiality and ethics in forensic science, equipping professionals with practical tools to navigate the complexities of daily decision-making.

Participants will explore explicit and implicit bias, key ISO/IEC 17025 requirements, and the influence of organizational culture and management on forensic integrity. Through real-world case studies and structured decision-making frameworks, this session moves beyond theory to provide actionable strategies for maintaining objectivity, promoting transparency, and ensuring reliable, unbiased results in the pursuit of justice.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Our specialized training and resources bridge the gap between generic leadership courses and traditional forensic technician training, equipping you with the skills and knowledge needed for professional development in your forensic career.
