MENTAL HEALTH & PROFESSIONAL RESILIENCE FOR CSIS

March 3, 2026 | 1400-1600 EST

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Crime scene work is demanding, high-stress, and often emotionally taxing. This course is designed to help Crime Scene Investigators recognize how repeated exposure to trauma can impact focus, decision-making, and overall well-being—and how to address it before it becomes overwhelming.

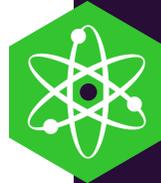

Participants will learn practical strategies for managing stress, maintaining healthy professional boundaries, and supporting both themselves and their peers. By building self-awareness and resilience, investigators will be better equipped to protect their mental health while remaining focused, effective, and professional in the field.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Our specialized training and resources bridge the gap between generic leadership courses and traditional forensic technician training, equipping you with the skills and knowledge needed for professional development in your forensic career.
